Conference Highlights

This year, we are thrilled to be holding the conference at the Royal on the Park Hotel in the river city of Brisbane. The hotel is opposite the Botanic Gardens and famous river city walkway.

PANDDA will announce exciting developments and plans for 2026.

Hear from international keynote speakers and engage in concurrent sessions, including experts in the field and individuals with lived experience, who will inspire and enlighten us with their insights.

An opportunity to network with nurses and allied health professionals with an interest in disability and explore current evidence, research and practice.

Our sponsors are willing participants again this year and the opportunity to visit trade displays.

Hear about the extensive work undertaken by PANDDA this year that will be presented by PANDDA President, Gail Tomsic.

The Annual General Meeting will be conducted by the PANDDA Vice President Sharon Paley.
